ST. PAUL M. E. CHURCH.

Corner Burford and Juliette Sts.
The Sunday school exercises were splendidly carried out and the renditions excellent. Supt. A. H. Harris earned high commendations for the manager in which he handled the services, ably assisted by an excellent corps of teachers. The morning and evening devotional worship showed an awakening spiritual life in the St. Paulites and the exclamations of amen and hallelujah were fervently manifested showing that the words of the Presiding Minister struck home hard and deep. Three persons entered their names on the church roll to do battle on the side of right. Much interest was entered in the Centenary Drive, which proved quite successful as $600.00 or more was raised and placed on the altar to be used for the cause of the Master and of humanity. The attendance at all of the services was unusually large and interested. Pastor J. W. Weekly has worn deep in the minds of his fold who realizes his worth as a pastor and a minister. The public is always welcome.
